The Servant of the Lord

“Here is my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen one in whom I delight;

I will put my Spirit on him,
and he will bring justice to the nations.

He will not shout or cry out,
or raise his voice in the streets.

A bruised reed he will not break,
and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out.
In faithfulness he will bring forth justice;

he will not falter or be discouraged till he establishes justice on earth.

In his teaching the islands will put their hope.”

This is what God the Lord says—

the Creator of the heavens, who stretches them out, who spreads out the earth with all that springs from it,

who gives breath to its people,
and life to those who walk on it:

“I, the Lord, have called you in righteousness;

I will take hold of your hand.

I will keep you and will make you to be a covenant for the people and a light for the Gentiles,
to open eyes that are blind,
to free captives from prison

and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness.

“I am the Lord; that is my name!

I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols.

⁹See, the former things have taken place,
and new things I declare;
before they spring into being
I announce them to you.”

Prayer for the Day

O God, make speed to save us. O Lord, make haste to help us.
Blessed are you, Sovereign God, our light and our salvation...
As you call us into your marvellous light, may our lives bear witness to your truth, celebrating Christ as light to the nations.

Epiphany and the New Year

Happy New Year to you all.

I get quite excited about New Year and the Epiphany Season. Epiphany means revelation and I wonder what God has in store for us for 2026 and what He will reveal.

I know we have lots of things happening in the Benefice and I'm sure as we go through the year new things will emerge or we will glimpse new opportunities and new ways God is reaching out to us.

During Epiphany tide we get glimpses of the early life of Jesus and start to piece together who He is and what His life and mission will be.

And I guess the big question is will we allow Christ to reveal himself to us anew and what will our response be?

Wherever we are, city or village, busy street or quiet lane, Christ is revealed again when

We choose compassion over indifference,

We choose generosity over haste,

When we choose hope over fear, unity over division, kindness over meanness.

Christ becomes visible through us.

Epiphany reminds us that God is not distant; He is right here, walking our streets, sharing our lives, and lighting even the darkest winter days.

LET US PRAY: An Epiphany Prayer....

Loving God,
as lights glow in cities and villages,
be born again in our hearts this Epiphany.
Bless our streets and homes,
our conversations and quiet moments,
that kindness may come easily and hope may rise gently among us.

Help us to notice one another,
to offer welcome where it is needed,
and to carry Your peace into everyday life.

May the joy of Christ
walk with us wherever we go, today and always.
Amen.

Eco Tip of the Month

Look after your radiators - during this cold spell.

Bleeding your radiators – which means releasing air that has become trapped inside – can make them perform better, and be more cost efficient

Make sure you turn your heating off and that your radiators are completely cold before starting.

Then, lay down some towels and use a valve key to loosen the bleed valve. Listen for the hissing sound of air escaping, then tighten it back up once the noise ends.

ELM Children and Youth Learning Session

We warmly invite all children and youth volunteers and leaders to our first learning session, where we'll support and celebrate the important work you do throughout the deanery.

This is a unique opportunity to come together and learn from one another's experiences in children and youth ministry.

We'll have time for open discussion and short, engaging spotlights on working with mixed-age groups of children and young people. If you have favourite books, resources, or websites that help you plan your children's groups, please bring them to share.

This gathering is a great way to gain new ideas, support each other, and explore future training needs. Whether you're new to children's ministry or have lots of experience, we hope you'll join us to share, be encouraged, and leave inspired.

To book your place, please email Gayle Bryon ELM Coordinator Harrogate Deanery gaylebryonelm@gmail.com by the 3rd of February 2026.
