

Website Accessibility Statement

This accessibility statement applies to the website: www.thorpe-hall.org, (this website) including all pages to be found on this domain.

This website is owned and operated by the Trustees of Ashwellthorpe and Fundenhall Community Centre (AKA Thorpe Hall). We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website.

For example, that means you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts
- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)
- We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand.

AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

This website has been constructed with every effort made to ensure it is accessible to everyone, however, should you find any section not accessible, then please contact the trustees via our Contact page. We will endeavour to ensure that, wherever possible and practicable, we can accommodate you in all matters relating to accessibility.

Alternative Formats

If you need information on this website in a different format like accessible PDF, large print, easy read, audio recording or braille: please contact us.
