Tackling anti-social behaviour together

Reducing anti-social behaviour (ASB) across Wiltshire and Swindon remains a top priority for Police and Crime Commissioner. With increased funding and partnership work, police visibility has grown in hotspot areas—bringing over 2,400 hours of extra patrols. While ASB reports to Wiltshire Police are down 10.3% year-on-year, more people are seeking help through Victim Support cases. This shows that support is being accessed—but more reporting is needed.

- 💡 If you're affected by ASB, don't suffer in silence.
- ◆ Report it to your local neighbourhood policing team
- ◆ Follow our Anti-Social Behaviour online reporting guidance
- ◆ Call Victim Support on 0808 281 0113 or visit their site for help

Together, we can make Wiltshire and Swindon safer for everyone.
